

September–November

In the fall the apples are fully grown. They are ready to be picked, sent to the market and eaten by you!